

TRAINING OVERVIEW

- In-depth information about the latest essential features to incorporate in a successful Pipeline Integrity Management System
- Learn how to perform self-assessments and annual pipeline integrity assessment health checks
- Systems and practical examples will be presented
- Learn to apply the latest technology in pipeline integrity
- Comparisons of (different) jurisdictional requirements
- Information on best practices and practical interpretation and application of the various inspection tasks

TOPICS COVERED

- ✓ PHMSA and other regulatory requirements
- ✓ API 1160
- ✓ ASME B31.8S
- ✓ API 1173
- ✓ Pipeline safety management
- ✓ Role of senior management
- ✓ Role of management representative
- ✓ Practical examples
- ✓ Overview of risk assessment
- ✓ ECDA
- ✓ ICDA
- ✓ Inspection methodology & defect assessment
- ✓ API 1163 – in-line inspection systems
- ✓ Threat identification
- ✓ Plan development
- ✓ Data integration
- ✓ Spike and hydrostatic pressure testing
- ✓ Direct assessment
- ✓ CSA Z662 Annex N

ABOUT THE INSTRUCTORS

- Played major roles in the development of integrity regulations and codes
- Practical experience as owners, consultants and regulators
- Leading providers of pipeline and pressure equipment integrity management services and field inspection services
- In depth knowledge and awareness of regulatory and code requirements

COURSE DETAILS

Pipeline Integrity Management (PIM) Essentials course

June 26 - 27, 2019

$950 USD

For questions or more detailed information, please contact:

403-516-4217 | training@acuren.com

LUNCH WILL BE PROVIDED

LOCATION

Hellier NDT / CodeWest API Facility
Suite C-1, 600 Kenrick Dr.
Houston, TX 77060

To register please visit www.acuren.com/PIM-essentials

Acuren provides state-of-the-art nondestructive testing, inspection, engineering and rope access enabled industrial services, delivered throughout 80 locations and utilizing 4,000 employees across North America and the United Kingdom.